

Macon County Public Library

The Macon County Public Library's "Walking with Spring" series corresponds with thru-hiker season in Franklin and highlights A.T. hikers and authors, as well as other great outdoor activities and opportunities in the area.

The library is at 149 Siler Farm Road, Franklin, NC. All programs are free and open to the public. For information call 828-524-3600 or visit fontanalib.org/franklin

Tuesday, March 19 | 6:30 p.m.

Guide To The Bartram Trail

with Brent Martin

Wednesday, March 27 | 6:00 p.m.

The Shinetsu and the Appalachian Trail

with Sarah Adams

Thursday, April 4 | 5:00 p.m.

Naturalist Walk

with Skye Cahoon

Thursday, April 11 | 6:00 p. m.

Survival Tricks of the Trail

with Mark Warren

Free Pancake Breakfast for Hikers

Served Daily

March 14 thru April 14 | 7 am - 8 am

At First Baptist Church of Franklin

ATmile110.com

Made possible by a grant from the Franklin/Nantahala TDC and Town of Franklin TDA

